Intercede Health announces new Chief Operating Officer. Prior General Electric executive to lead organization

HOUSTON, TX, OCTOBER 20, 2009

Intercede Health, a privately held medical management company, announces the appointment of Abe Lincoln as Chief Operating Officer effective immediately.

Mr. Lincoln takes a key leadership role in the company as Intercede Health builds momentum in the healthcare and software businesses with its hospitalist services, general hospital consulting and its revolutionary CPOE system, Order Optimizer™. "Abe brings an extraordinary amount of talent to our team. His experience at Microsoft and General Electric partnered with the clinical strengths of the company will prove to be a powerful combination. We will marry business science to the art of medicine." noted company Chief Executive Officer, Gray Miller.

Mr. Lincoln brings over 17 years of operations experience to Intercede having experience in a number of industries including financial services, aviation, technology and healthcare. He has had key leadership roles in business integration and process re-engineering initiatives as well as having hands-on operations leadership experience in multiple departments.

Mr. Lincoln holds a B.S. in finance from California Polytechnic University, San Luis Obispo.
