Intercede Health announces relationship with Bon Secours DePaul Medical Center in Norfolk, VA

Intercede Health Hospitalist Program and Order Optimizer software product to be leveraged at Bon Secours DePaul

HOUSTON, TX APRIL 29, 2009

Founded in 1996, Intercede Health, a privately held medical management company and a leader in the field of hospitalist and Intensivist medicine, announces a new hospitalist program at DePaul Medical Center in Norfolk, VA.

“We are very excited about the prospect of building a hospitalist program with the team at Bon Secours DePaul. We believe we are entering a very effective partnership in our pursuit of excellent patient care.” notes Intercede Health President and CEO Gray Miller.

Intercede Health offers hospitals delivery of clinical efficiency and better financial performance with experienced leadership, innovative management techniques, computerized support tools and a data driven process that is unparalleled in the industry. The company will be engaged to build a hospitalist program at the facility. Hospitalists are internal medicine physicians, who are trained to deliver more efficient care for patients who are hospitalized.

“At Bon Secours, our goal is to provide exceptional, personalized care.” said Daniel S. Duggan, EVP/Administrator for Bon Secours DePaul. “We believe Intercede Health will allow us to achieve that goal by helping to provide the best clinical outcomes in a compassionate, healing environment.”
